

SFWA Artist Member Application: Serenity Exhibitions at UCSF for 2023

Name _____

Date _____

The Tentative 2023 Serenity theme(s) your work applies to:

- (I am) Cool and Collected, January-May 2023
- (I am) Bright and Cheerful, May-September 2023
- (I am) Quiet and Restful, September 2023-January 2024

Please select your first choice and second choice for shows listed above.

Note that themes change yearly.

Active San Francisco Women Artists Gallery Member Yes _____ No _____

SFWA dues current Yes _____ No _____

Your Art Website(s) _____

Your Social Media Links _____

Email _____

Phone _____

Address _____

Please submit with this application:

- 1) A document showing a minimum of 10-15 color thumbnails of larger pieces (20" height minimum, 50" height maximum) with titles, media, and size.
- 2) A document showing a minimum of 5-10 color thumbnails of smaller pieces (12" minimum height, 24" maximum height) with titles, media, and size.

Submit this form and accompanying art documents by email to the SFWA-Serenity Co-Chairs:

SRKirshenbaum@gmail.com and jean.brodie@aol.com.

All art submitted and curated into a Serenity show must be for sale and must remain at UCSF National Center of Excellence in Women's Health, 2356 Sutter St., San Francisco, for the duration of the show, which is four months.

All sales are handled by SFWA Gallery.

Work for a Serenity show must be delivered ready to hang on installation day.

Artists must hang their own work on their assigned floor, following the plan created by the curators, at UCSF National Center of Excellence in Women's Health

They must be available on the installation date and de-installation dates.

Once accepted to the Serenity Show, also required: Submission of images of the art exhibited in the show to SFWA's online shop and to UCSF for their website.

And each artist must use the SFWA-supplied Word template to create a bio/statement for display next to their work.

Also see the "SFWA EXHIBITING MEMBER ARTIST GUIDELINES 2022" for more detailed requirements of this show.